

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Applicants gratefully acknowledge the Examiner's indication that claims 2-4 and 10 contain allowable subject matter.

Claim 1 has been amended to include the limitations of claim 10, so that amended claim 1 is, with one exception, the equivalent of claim 10 rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims (none). The exception is that the language "in particular for adjusting moveable parts in a motor vehicle" has been deleted from the first two lines of the claim. Applicants believe this limitation may have unduly limited the claim and is not necessary to define over the prior art.

Amended claim 1 is therefore allowable.

Claims 2-8, 12 and 13 depend from claim 1 and are therefore also allowable.

Claim 10 has been cancelled.

New claim 14 is, with the one exception noted above with respect to claim 1, the equivalent of claim 2 rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims (none). New claim 14 is therefore allowable.

Amended claims 9 and 11 depend from claim 14 and are therefore also allowable.

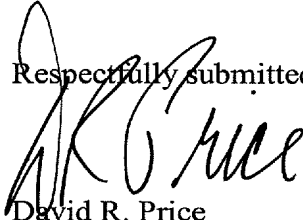

New claim 15 is, with the one exception noted above with respect to claim 1, the equivalent of claim 3 rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims (none). New claim 15 is therefore allowable.

New claims 17 and 18, which mirror claims 9 and 11, depend from claim 15 and are therefore also allowable.

New claim 16 is, with the one exception noted above with respect to claim 1, the equivalent of claim 4 rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims (none). New claim 16 is therefore allowable.

New claims 19 and 20, which mirror claims 9 and 11, depend from claim 15 and are therefore also allowable.

In view of the foregoing, entry of the above amendment and allowance of claims 1-9 and 11-20 are respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

David R. Price
